Washington, D.C. – Today, Congressman Tom Rooney (R-Fla.) introduced a resolution to honor the 100th anniversary of Palm Beach County. The entire Congressional delegation representing Palm Beach County has joined in cosponsoring the resolution.

"Palm Beach County is one of the most unique of the 67 counties in Florida and this resolution honors the 100th anniversary of the county's incorporation," said Rooney. "Palm Beach County's economy is very diverse – from tourism and hospitality to being an agricultural leader. The Jupiter Lighthouse, the Breakers and the Flagler Museum are all historic landmarks that mark the history of Palm Beach County. The 100th anniversary is truly a historic milestone in the celebrated history of Palm Beach County"