Washington, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Tom Rooney (FL-16) today presented Adam Martin, an Army Veteran from Sebring, with the Combat Action Badge and the Iraqi Campaign Medal with two Bronze Service Stars earned during his service in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom:

“Adam Martin’s served his country with honor and distinction, and I’m honored to present him with these awards,” Rooney said.

“On July 4, 2004, as a Military Police Team Leader on a mission escorting a supply convoy in Iraq, Martin’s unit encountered a vehicle-born improvised explosive device. After the vehicle exploded, sending shrapnel, fire, smoke and debris everywhere, Sgt. Martin led the convoy to rally a mile east, where they could fully assess injuries and damage. For his courage in this incident, Adam Martin has been awarded the Combat Action Badge and the Iraqi Campaign Medal with two Bronze Service Stars.”

Martin served with the United States Army Reserve 810th Military Police Company, and deployed to Kuwait and Iraq from May 2003 through August 2004.
