

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Tom Rooney (FL-16) today announced that he will speak at the Navy SEAL/UDT Muster in Fort Pierce on Saturday, November 6 to honor the courageous service of local veterans and service members. Approximately 6,000 veterans, service members and their families are expected to gather for Saturday's events.

"I am always in awe of the courage and sacrifice that each of our armed service members and veterans have made," Rooney said. "I'm looking forward to joining our local veterans and their families to recognize the honor, privilege and duty that is borne by those who wear the SEAL Trident."
