

“After 9/11, our country and Congress were united behind the victims and the heroes of that tragic day. I am very pleased that Congress was able to reach an agreement on this legislation to make sure that 9/11 first responders can get the care they need.”

###